

LOCAL DOINGS IN TABLOID FORM

"Federal supervision of the unemployed," advocated by Walter L. Sears, Supt. Mass. State Employment Bureau, at meeting of employment bureau chiefs.

"The Prophecy," a play on the "yellow peril," to be given at the Lincoln Theater, Lincoln and Belmont av., for three days, commencing Dec. 18.

Bomb exploded under two-story building, 217 W. 23d st. 14-months-old baby injured. Building wrecked.

Game wardens chase seiners. Three captured. Have warrants for 25.

Dr. Marie Montessori, founder of new system of child training, here today.

John McArthur, 5428 Lake Park av., fell into lake. Rescued by Officer Frazier.

Richard Lang, 2544 N. Avers av., has experienced much annoyance because some one by the same name got mixed up in the case of Sophie Hovanitz, young girl who attempted suicide after blaming several men for her downfall.

John Flatters, South Chicago, fined $100 by Judge Sullivan. Raided chicken coop of Charles Johnson, 9913 Brandon av.

Mrs. Charles Schenk, 5714 Dorchester av., robbed by purse snatcher in Washington Park.

Postmaster Campbell denies that parcel post is congested.

Aetna Powder Mills, near Gary, Ind., closed. First time in 30 years. 250' out of jobs.

John Ohinan, 850 N. Dearborn st., robbed by two men without 200 feet of Chicago av. police station. $75, watch and railroad ticket.

License of Giuseppe Cenite, 1001 Racine av., revoked by mayor. Operated dive in basement of saloon.

Rear car caught fire in Englewood Wilson "L" train. Extinguished by train crew.

Officials of Russian Candy Co. corrected report that some of their product had been condemned. Name was confused with that of another company.

Main feed wire broke at Lockport power house. City in darkness for twenty minutes.

Robert Linn, 35 S. Dearborn st., mine promoter, up before Judge Mack of Federal Court. Said to have used mails to defraud.

Health Commissioner Young to prevent water pollution. Passenger steamers to retain all garbage until two miles from shore.

Frank Kobak, 687 Milwaukee av., stabbed on Chicago av. street car.

Michael Clark, 3746 Wallace st., in County Hospital and Joseph Mentello, 1529 S. Wabash av., arrested. Both claimed same dog.

Thomas Stanwick held for federal grand jury. Took violin from mail wagon.

Mrs. Nellie McFarland McGowan, 3343 Prairie av., appointed superintendent of Soldier Widows' Home, Wilmington.

Ella Randall, Danville, Ind., runaway girl, returned to parents.

Garbage deal postponed. Waiting for hearing of condemnation proceedings.

Free lunch ordinance laid over two weeks. Saloonkeepers favor move to abolish free grub.

Honor system in U. of C. Cheating at exams to be punished by students.

Louis Boucher, Waukegan, Ill., robbed by three men at N. Robey st. near Washington blvd. Lost $2,480.

Vote fraud cases to be tried Jan. 5.

500 women appointed judges and clerks of election at aldermanic primaries. 900 more to be named within a few days.

Store of Benjamin Planer, 2018 W. 35th st., entered. Joseph Kraus arrested.

August Poehls killed by Grand Trunk train.

Miss Sarah E. Wiley, Nashville, Tenn., died at Lakeside Hospital,